Non-members are always welcome.
No experience is needed to take part, it's just a great day out.
Waterproof clothing and suitable footwear are essential.
Packed lunches are indispensable on the Saturday walks.
Both the Saturday & Monday meetings are always of an easy to leisurely pace, but could include a small gradient.
Don't be afraid of contacting the Field Leaders if you need a lift to the meeting place or if weather conditions happen to change beforehand. They will be on hand to advise you.

Whilst your safety and well-being are of great importance to the Society, you are ultimately responsible for your own safety and therefore take part at your own risk. Think of your safety.
Always advise the Field Leaders if you need to leave a meeting early.
When on the roads always try to face the oncoming traffic.
Respect all wildlife, follow the Birdwatchers' code. Keep to the rights of way. Respect other walkers, and ultimately, have a great day out with a great bunch of people.

Finally, for those who can't make it to the meetings, keep a lookout on the website for the outing reports and see what you could have seen.
